

Armerita D. Tell

Education: Jackson State University
Bachelor of Science, Education
Major: Special Education
Minor: Psychology
Master of Science, Education

Experience: The Citizen & Community Services Director, Office of the Governor: As Director, Ms. Tell is responsible for coordinating special field activities designed to heighten the Governor's contact with constituents, serving as the Governor's alternate for state, regional or national events, & for coordinating communication between the Governor and his constituents.

Division Director II, Department of Education: Was responsible for directing the activities for the Division of Disability Training Programs for the Office of Special Education. Served in public relation capacity with other state agencies and local school districts, providing interpretation and advocacy of office and department policy.

Education Specialist, Department of Education: Planned, supervised and coordinated programs of the department in cooperation with local school systems and Federal government. Developed procedures for consistent, effective and efficient operations of programs.

Department of Human & Cultural Services, City of Jackson: Responsible for recruiting and training summer employment. Recruited business for jobs, developed training modules, developed budget, coordinated public relations activities and counseled youth.

Organization & Affiliations:

Leadership Jackson Graduate
Mississippi State University Stennis Institute Graduate
Board Member for Operation Shoestring
Appointed to Development Disability Council
Member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority
Attends Anderson Methodist Church in Jackson
The mother of one daughter